The National Soccer Coaches Association and Adidas have recently recognized the recipients of the N.S.C.A.A. & Adidas Team Academic Award for 2006. The Black River High School 2005 Girls Varsity Soccer Team has been awarded the 2006 National Soccer Coaches Association & Adidas Team Academic Award..

To achieve this honor, teams must submit their cumulative grade point averages for the entire school year. To be eligible for the award the cumulative grade point average has to be a minimum of 3.25, calculated on a 4.0 scale.

Application for this award are completed for the 2005-2006 academic year. The nominating committee reviews the applications in the fall of 2006. The announcement for the award is made in December 2006. The recipients of the Academic Award for the 2006 Team include the members of the 2005 - 06 Varsity Team. The 2005 Team includes; Felicia Drummond, Alyssa Reiser, Nicole Rohrig, Marissa Stinson, Mairi Trimboli, Jenna Winter, Megan Combatti, Nicole DiNapoli, Nicole Reiser, Amy Sanford, Maggie Seiple, Ashlee Stillwell, Kelly Stringer, Amy Valente, Jenna Berger, Destiny Cucullo, Alisha Durgin, Allison Gillette, Emily Josselyn, Kim Burns, Molly Garvey, Courtney Rohrig. Sandy Roundy, Kathleen Thompson

More than 350 High Schools across America earned this award. Along with a certificate that will be placed in the school, the team will be recognized at the High School Soccer Coaches Breakfast held at the annual N.S.C.A.A. Convention in Indianapolis this year. A copy of the certificate is presented to each student athlete in recognition of this achievement. This is an outstanding accomplishment that reflects the hard work of everyone in the Black River Educational Community: the student athletes, their teachers, coaches and parents.
