Daily Announcements

Wednesday, March 10, 2010

NHS Meeting will be held on Thursday, March 11th at 11:30 in the library.

There will be a Youth Activist Institute at Vt. Tech in Randolph from June 25 – 27th. This workshop is designed to engage high school youth in activism & empower them to inspire others to make change. Application deadline is April 16th. If interested please see guidance

All students who want to participate in the French Immersion trip next year should attend a mandatory meeting this Thursday night at 7:00 in Mr. Pollard's room. The trip is open to students of French who will be in grades 9 – 12 next year. Any questions should talk to Mr. Pollard.

All applications for Governor's Institutes of Vermont must be in the guidance office by this Wednesday, March 10th.

Green Mountain Girls State applications are in. Girls' States consists of a mock government where self-governing citizens elect their town, county & state officials, form party platforms, & present their own bills for enactment during their legislative session. The application is open to any girl currently in the Junior class. If you are interested, please pick up the application in guidance.

Students who will be 16 years old by June may apply for the Vermont Youth Conservation Corps. This outdoor work experience helps to foster leadership skills and is a great summer opportunity for students. Please see Ms. McBain or check online at the VYCC website for an application.
